Tourism Windsor Essex Pelee Island invites the local tourism industry to gather for its AGM

WINDSOR, ON – On Thursday, June 16, Tourism Windsor Essex Pelee Island (TWEPI) is pleased to host its Annual General Meeting. This is an opportunity for the local tourism industry to gather to hear a few highlights of the organization’s accomplishments and its strategic plan for the future.

Attendees will also have the opportunity to hear from Change Maker and Entrepreneur Josh Linkner. A Detroit native, Josh is the New York Times Bestselling Author of “Disciplined Dreaming: A Proven System to Drive Breakthrough Creativity”.

Among those 100+ tourism stakeholders attending are representatives from TWEPI’s Board of Directors, Ontario Tourism Marketing Partnership Corporation, the Ministry of Tourism, Culture, & Sport, Southwestern Tourism Corporation, local municipalities, and local tourism partners.

“We are very fortunate to have an enthusiastic and engaged local tourism industry. Their active participation is a major factor behind the success of our organization,” says Gordon Orr, CEO of Tourism Windsor Essex Pelee Island. “This Annual General Meeting gives us the opportunity to share our strategic plan for the future and celebrate our collective accomplishments.”
